Pastor's Pen

Good morning and welcome to Eastview.

This morning we are starting a brief sermon series in the book of Psalms.

It is easy to see that the Psalms are poetry, but sometimes we lose some of the poetry because the psalms were originally written in Hebrew rather than English. To counteract that, it can be uplifting to read them in a different version than usual. For example, here is Psalm 23 from The Message version:

*GOD, my shepherd! I don't need a thing.
 You have bedded me down in lush meadows,
 you find me quiet pools to drink from.
 True to your word, you let me catch my breath and send me in the right direction.*

*Even when the way goes through Death Valley,
 I'm not afraid when you walk at my side.
 Your trusty shepherd's crook makes me feel secure.
 You serve me a six-course dinner right in front of my enemies.*

You revive my drooping head; my cup brims with blessing.

Your beauty and love chase after me every day of my life.

I'm back home in the house of GOD for the rest of my life.

Don't you love the pictorial language? :-)

God bless you,
 Robyn

Wen Li Orange was elected and Matt Warner re-elected to the Oversight. Please keep the Oversight team in your prayers as they make decisions about the future here at Eastview.
