Pastor's Pen

Hi, and welcome to Eastview, we're glad you're here.

As Christians around the world celebrated the resurrection of Jesus at Easter, there was a shocking and stark reminder of why he sacrificed himself for the sins of humanity. In Sri Lanka the full horror of our sin was on display, as suicide bombers killed over 300 people and injured 500 more.

There will be speculation and analysis as to how and why these attacks happened. There will be talk of how the world needs to be more inclusive, tolerant, respectful and loving etc. These are lovely sentiments, but the only thing that will actually permanently change the world for good is Jesus. Jesus, who died for our sins. Jesus, whose message of love and reconciliation is our sacred task to communicate to a broken and hurting world.

So as we proclaim the name of Jesus today, pray for Sri Lanka. His grace, peace and love will be needed as people mourn and try and make sense of what happened.

In the precious name of Jesus,

Jon
