Pastor's Pen

Good morning and welcome to Eastview Baptist Church!

This morning we are starting a new sermon series on "Adventuring with God."

If we don't know much about God, this might seem like quite a random series. However, the Bible tells us of people's adventures with God, from Noah (towards the beginning of the book of Genesis) to the Apostle John (at the end of the Bible in the book of Revelation.)

This morning, Ethan is going to speak to us about the sort of faith that motivates such exploits.

At Eastview, we have some people who have been on huge adventures with God. Have a chat to John and Susan sometime, or Jenny, or the team that planted this church.

Discipleship is a relationship with Jesus Christ.

That relationship will cost us time, money, and often will lead us into hardship, as we seek to follow Christ in a world that wants to do things its own way and denies God. But there is nothing more freeing and transforming than the change that God can do in our lives, both individually and as a church community.

Are you on that adventure? If you would like to know more about what it means to follow Jesus Christ, come and talk to one of the leaders.

God bless you,

Robyn
