Pastor's Pen

Kia ora and welcome to Eastview Baptist. We hope that you feel welcome and enjoy our service! Today we have one of our members Geoff Smith speaking to us about "Adventuring with God."

Recently, Christianity has received quite a lot of attention in NZ. Between Israel Folau, Brian and Hannah Tamaki and a potential new political party, our beliefs have received a fair bit of flack. I used to get discouraged by this, but now I choose to see it as an opportunity because 1) people don't mind talking about these issues and 2) it gives us the chance to share what we are really about, not just what people perceive from the outside.

I love being able to tell people that God is a God of love, grace, justice, mercy, peace, joy and hope. I love being able to tell people that the greatest commandment is loving God and loving others. I love being able to tell people that Churches and Christian organisations support people in poverty, run social services, youth groups, recovery groups and more.

This sounds like good news to me. Instead of focusing on people's sin, why don't we start focusing on the good we all want to see? Let's become known more for what we are for than what we are against!

Enjoy the rest of your long weekend and have a great week!

God Bless, Ethan
